What would you like from this relationship?

We love celebrating our Business Associates – with your agreement, we'll share your support for NCWGB with our members and on our social media, and we'd be delighted for you to do the same for us. We offer businesses a version of our logo plus wording 'supporting the National Council of Women GB' or celebrating National Council of Women GB's 130th anniversary for your website. One thing to note: NCWGB doesn't promote or endorse any particular business's products or services, so featuring you as an Associate reflects your support for our work (thank you!). References to NCWGB in your publicity, or use of our logo, should be agreed with us in advance.
